

EXCESS EMPLOYER'S

You don't have to be wrong to be sued. Catastrophic lawsuits and other risk's can threaten the future of your client's business. In many cases, policies such as Workers' Compensation, General Liability or Employer's Liability do not provide sufficient limits of insurance to fully protect your client's assets. Because a primary policy can easily be exhausted, we provide up to $5,000,000 in excess capacity to single entities, groups and public entities nationwide.
